Art Unit: 1742

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

3. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Dorfman et al. US Pat. No. 6,103,392 (Dorfman et al.).

Dorfman et al. discloses the invention substantially as claimed. Dorfman et al. discloses a method of forming a W-Cu composite comprising:

forming a W-Cu composite powder by co-reduction of W and Cu oxides (col. 4, lines 41-53); and sintering the formed W-Cu composite powder by a sintering cycle that contains parameters that substantially overlap those as claimed by Applicant (col. 13, lines 14-30, in particular look to lines 26-30).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to select any portion of the range, including the claimed range, from the broader range disclosed in the prior art, because the prior art finds that the entire disclosed range has a suitability utility.

Overlapping ranges have been held to be a prima facie case of obviousness, see MPEP 2144.05.
